City of Grover Beach Invites Community Members to Join the Round-Table Planning Meeting for a Special Event to Celebrate Cultural Diversity

Grover Beach, CA – – The Parks and Recreation Department is soliciting public interest in participating in a round-table meeting for the planning of activities for a special event to celebrate cultural diversity. The date of the event will be determined by the planning group.

The goal will be to plan an event that celebrates and embraces the diverse cultures present in our community.

Representatives from the community are encouraged to volunteer to share ideas regarding event planning with cultural perspectives. Cultural representation ideas from storytellers, chefs, artists, musicians, photographers, poets, crafters, dancers, fashion and more are requested.

Please RSVP to the Grover Beach Parks and Recreation Department to be included on the mailing list for meeting time and date.

For more information, please contact the Grover Beach Parks and Recreation Department at (805) 473-4580 or send an email to gbparks@grover.org.
